I was incredibly pleased with the design work done by Rebel Media Agency. They were incredibly responsive and attentive to my vision. We made several changes along the way, including adding a scroll section to the About Me page, removing the word "Properties" from the logo, and opting for a more streamlined button design. I also appreciated their suggestion to embed the Calendly link directly into the page for easier client booking. Overall, I'm extremely happy with the final product and would highly recommend Rebel Media Agency to anyone looking for top-notch design services."
